

Tanja Angjusheva

In 1997, Dr. Angjusheva finished specialization for internal medicine. She worked on intensive care in Military Hospital. In 2000, she transferred to cardiac surgery intensive care/Zan Mitrev Clinic. In 2004, she committed clinical practice in Deutsche Hertz Zentrum in Berlin, finished school for intraoperative TEE imaging, and became familiar with the usage of assist device in heart failure program. In 2008, she was elected member of Board on Macedonian Cardiology Society. In 2012, she finished subspecialization for cardiology. Dr. Tanja established modern cardiology intensive care introducing all percutaneous techniques and CVVHD treatment in critically ill patients. In 2018, she finished PhD studies and became Associated Professor for Internal Medicine/Cardiology University Goce Delchev. During the same year, she developed a program for mechanical circulatory support. In 2020, she became a member of National Heart transplant team. In 2023/24, she successfully finished PCHF/London. Dr. Tanja always promotes education and brings the news and knowledge in her country.